Name Lou	:: visiana: Our History,	_Date: Our Home	Class:
Chap	oter 10: Secession and Civil led Reading
Instr section		omplete each item	with words from the passages in th	is
1.	The assault of both sides.	on	led to cries for war on
2.	In the war's early months, many men eagerly to serve in the CSA army. Thousands of volunteers organized within standing units or created entirely new ones.
3.	Major organized one of the volunteer units most closely identified with Their and legendary gained them the nickname the "Fighting Tigers" or "Wheat's Tigers."
4.	Despite initial for serving in the conflict, the numbers of fell sharply as mounted and it became clear the war would be a long bloody
5.	To make service more, the Confederate government first offered a to men who were willing to
6.	up a for southern me	n. The act rs, and required all	, an act to, an act to, an act to the initial one-year term of able-bodied men between term.	f
7.	Over the next few weeks after the of those killed arriv population.		soldiers and the na, bringing the war home to the
8.	Because transport Union quickly adopted the		to the South's, tekade of the region's ports.	he
9.	A is the use of naval forces to a seaport and ships from entering or leaving it.
10		in New Orleans. Be	Mississippi, and ecause ships could neither leave nor ons

© Clairmont Press Page 1 of 2

name:	ame:	Date: _	Class	·
hapter 10: Secession and Civil War - Section 2: The Civil War Begins suided Reading 11. Despite repeated warnings that New Orleans was vulnerable to Union attack, and were the city's only protection to the south the city's only protection to the south began to those forts in mid-April of 1862. 13. On May 1, David turned New Orleans over to Union General turned New Orleans over to Union General to confiscate the of those who continued to support the to engage in war making an unfair on essential goods during times. 16. Union spread to other parts of the state as well. In early May 1862, fell to Farragut's fleet. 17. The for controlling the Mississippi River was called the its opponent into submission, like an anaconda did its victim. 18. Union forces had taken control of much of Louisiana, including and , in 1862. 19. By the end of April, Union forces controlled most of southwestern Louisiana, including , and 20. The siege of lasted forty-eight days, the longest in Civil War history. A is a tactic where an army tries to capture a fort or town by it and supplies from reaching it. 21. Events upriver at , Mississippi, led to a Confederate 2. Like General Banks at Port Hudson, Grant created a around	ouisiana: Ou	r History, Our H	łome
11. Despite repeated warnings that New Orleans was vulnerable to Union attack, and	uided Reading
and	11. Despite repeate	ed warnings that New Orl	eans was vulnerable to	o Union attack.
those forts in mid-April of 1862. 13. On May 1, David turned New Orleans over to Union General This allowed the Union arm to confiscate the	12. A Union naval	fleet led by flag officer		began to
14. Butler vigorously enforced the	those forts in n	nid-April of 1862.
14. Butler vigorously enforced the	-		ed New Orleans over to	o Union General
15. Butler was also accused of allowing his			Thi	s allowed the Union arm to confiscate th	ie of those w	ho continued to supp	ort the times. 16. Union spread to other parts of the state as well. In early May 1862, fell to Farragut's fleet. 17. The for controlling the Mississippi River was called the its opponent into submission, like an anaconda did its victim. 18. Union forces had taken control of much of Louisiana, including and , in 1862. 19. By the end of April, Union forces controlled most of southwestern Louisiana, including , and 20. The siege of lasted forty-eight days, the longest in Civil War history. A is a tactic where an army tries to capture a fort or town by it and supplies from reaching it. 21. Events upriver at , Mississippi, led to a Confederate around	15. Butler was also	accused of allowing his _	to en	gage in war
16. Union spread to other parts of the state as well. In early May 1862, fell to Farragut's fleet. 17. The for controlling the Mississippi River was called the its opponent into submission, like an anaconda did its victim. 18. Union forces had taken control of much of Louisiana, including and , in 1862. 19. By the end of April, Union forces controlled most of southwestern Louisiana, including , and 20. The siege of lasted forty-eight days, the longest in Civil War history. A is a tactic where an army tries to capture a fort or town by it and supplies from reaching it. 21. Events upriver at , Mississippi, led to a Confederate around		, making an unfair	on essential go	ods during fell to Farragut's fleet. 17. The for controlling the Mississippi River was called the its opponent into submission, like an anaconda did its victim. 18. Union forces had taken control of much of Louisiana, including and , in 1862. 19. By the end of April, Union forces controlled most of southwestern Louisiana, including , and 20. The siege of lasted forty-eight days, the longest in Civil War history. A is a tactic where an army tries to capture a fort or town by it and supplies from reaching it. 21. Events upriver at , Mississippi, led to a Confederate around	times.
Its goal was to its opponent into submission, like an anaconda did its victim. 18. Union forces had taken control of much of Louisiana, including and, in 1862. 19. By the end of April, Union forces controlled most of southwestern Louisiana, including, and 20. The siege of lasted forty-eight days, the longest in Civil War history. A is a tactic where an army tries to capture a fort or town by it and supplies from reaching it. 21. Events upriver at, Mississippi, led to a Confederate		——————————————————————————————————————	=	rell. In early May 1862, anaconda did its victim. 18. Union forces had taken control of much of Louisiana, including and, in 1862. 19. By the end of April, Union forces controlled most of southwestern Louisiana, including, and 20. The siege of lasted forty-eight days, the longest in Civil War history. A is a tactic where an army tries to capture a fort or town by it and supplies from reaching it. 21. Events upriver at, Mississippi, led to a Confederate	17. The	for controlling the M	ississippi River was ca	alled the
18. Union forces had taken control of much of Louisiana, including and, in 1862. 19. By the end of April, Union forces controlled most of southwestern Louisiana, including, and 20. The siege of lasted forty-eight days, the longest in Civil War history. A is a tactic where an army tries to capture a fort or town by it and supplies from reaching it. 21. Events upriver at, Mississippi, led to a Confederate around	_		its opponent into su	ıbmission, like an
and, in 1862. 19. By the end of April, Union forces controlled most of southwestern Louisiana, including, and 20. The siege of lasted forty-eight days, the longest in Civil War history. A is a tactic where an army tries to capture a fort or town by it and supplies from reaching it. 21. Events upriver at, Mississippi, led to a Confederate 22. Like General Banks at Port Hudson, Grant created a around	anaconda did i	its victim.
19. By the end of April, Union forces controlled most of southwestern Louisiana, including, and 20. The siege of lasted forty-eight days, the longest in Civil War history. A is a tactic where an army tries to capture a fort or town by it and supplies from reaching it. 21. Events upriver at, Mississippi, led to a Confederate 22. Like General Banks at Port Hudson, Grant created a around	18. Union forces h	ad taken control of much	of L	ouisiana, including and,	in 1862.
history. A is a tactic where an army tries to capture a fort or town by it and supplies from reaching it. 21. Events upriver at, Mississippi, led to a Confederate 22. Like General Banks at Port Hudson, Grant created a around				=
history. A is a tactic where an army tries to capture a fort or town by it and supplies from reaching it. 21. Events upriver at, Mississippi, led to a Confederate 22. Like General Banks at Port Hudson, Grant created a around	20.The siege of	laste	d forty-eight days, the	longest in Civil War
21. Events upriver at, Mississippi, led to a Confederate 22. Like General Banks at Port Hudson, Grant created a around	history. A	is a tactic who	ere an army tries to ca	pture a fort or town by
22. Like General Banks at Port Hudson, Grant created a around		it and	_ supplies from reach	ing it.
	21. Events upriver	at, Mis	sissippi, led to a Confe	ederate forces surrendered on July 4, 1863.	22. Like General B	anks at Port Hudson, Gra	nt created a	around force	es surrendered on Ju	ly 4, 1863.
23. Upon hearing the news, the remaining Confederate at Port Hudson	 	, 0	* ————

© Clairmont Press Page 2 of 2

_____ to General _____ on July 9, 1863.