

Name:

Date:

Chapter 12: Mississippi in the Global Village

Vocabulary

Directions: Match each of the terms in the left column to the correct definition in the right column. Write the letter of your answer in the space provided.

- |                                   |  |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| _____ 1. quaternary sector        | A. a densely populated area that is not within an incorporated place   |
| _____ 2. renewable resources      | B. a person from Latin America (Central and South America, where Latin-based languages—Spanish and Portuguese—are spoken)  |
| _____ 3. secondary sector         | C. part of the service industry that includes insurance, trade, legal services, banking, advertising, wholesaling, retailing, consulting, information generation, real estate transactions, and the collection, generation, storage, retrieval, and processing of computerized information |
| _____ 4. durable goods            | D. fuels that are derived from various kinds of plants   |
| _____ 5. suburbs                  | E. sale in a foreign country   |
| _____ 6. tertiary sector          | F. a municipality with fewer than 2,000 but more than 300 inhabitants  |
| _____ 7. export                   | G. products that can be used for longer than three years, such as furniture and fixtures, motor vehicles and equipment, and electronic equipment   |
| _____ 8. poverty level            | H. a political subdivision within the state of Mississippi; can be a city, town, or village  |
| _____ 9. primary sector           | I. products that are consumed in the short run and include food and food-related products, clothing, textile products, and chemicals and allied products   |
| _____ 10. census designated place | J. resources that can be reused, like aluminum cans, paper products, and lead from car batteries   |
| _____ 11. recyclable resources    | K. the manufacturing sector of our economy, which processes raw materials into finished goods and products for use by other businesses, for export, or for sale to domestic consumers  |
| _____ 12. nondurable goods        | L. gambling or games of chance   |
| _____ 13. town                    | M. communities that surround cities but are outside city limits  |
| _____ 14. quinary sector          | N. resources that naturally renew themselves—like plants, trees, and animals   |
| _____ 15. economy                 | O. a municipality with more than 2,000 inhabitants   |
| _____ 16. Latino                  | P. part of the service industry that includes consumer-related services such as education, government, health/medicine, household services, and tourism and recreation   |
| _____ 17. nonrenewable resources  | Q. the first sector of our economy, which involves the development of natural resources or raw materials and includes agriculture, forestry, and mining  |
| _____ 18. city                    | R. the service industry, which provides a wide variety of services to other businesses and consumers   |
| _____ 19. gaming                  | S. income of approximately $11,000 for an individual and $22,000 for a family of four  |
| _____ 20. municipality            | T. all of the activities involved in the production, distribution, and consumption of goods and services   |
| _____ 21. ethnic                  | U. resources like coal, oil, and gas that cannot be replaced once they are consumed  |
| _____ 22. biofuels                | V. refers to a group of people with a common racial, national, linguistic, and cultural heritage   |