

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

North Carolina: People, Places, & Progress

Chapter 5: The Early Settlement of North Carolina

Section 2: Settling the Pamlico Sound and the Cape Fear

Focused Reading

Instructions: Read the section and complete each item with words from the passages in this section.

1. After 1690, the _____ made special offers of cheap land to _____ from various religious wars in Europe.
2. In 1696, a group of _____ (French Protestants), thrown out of their own country because they refused to be _____, settled on the northern edge of the _____, not far from the mouth of the Tar River.
3. The settlers hoped to raise _____ on the rich grass that grew among the longleaf pines of the nearby forests.
4. So many _____ headed for the _____ that Virginia actually tried to pass laws forbidding them to leave.
5. The _____ grew so fast that some newcomers ambitiously started _____, the colony's first town, in 1705.
6. The _____ turned to _____ as a way to organize the colony.
7. The _____ reasoned that introducing the Church of England might make Carolinians better _____ —and better _____.
8. _____ meant that all colonists officially belonged to the _____ faith, whether they wanted to or not. All citizens were expected to pay _____, which would be used to build Anglican churches and pay Anglican clergymen.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

North Carolina: People, Places, & Progress

Chapter 5: The Early Settlement of North Carolina

Section 2: Settling the Pamlico Sound and the Cape Fear

Focused Reading

9. In 1704, the General Assembly passed the _____, which required anyone in public office to put his hand on a _____ and swear to uphold the principles of the _____ Church, not any other.
10. As _____ kept the colony in an uproar, the _____ Indians attempted to destroy the Pamlico settlements in 1711.
11. The _____ were angry about more than lost _____. Their desire to _____ wherever they wanted conflicted with white farmers' need to protect _____ fields. In addition, white traders _____ the natives with poor quality goods and _____ Native Americans to sell into slavery in the Caribbean.
12. _____ sent troops to help, mostly Native Americans from its region who were longtime enemies of the Tuscarora. Commanded by Colonel John Barnwell ("Tuscarora Jack"), the South Carolinians _____ the Tuscarora in a series of battles along the _____ River.
13. Barnwell so angered the _____ that they attacked the Pamlico again in 1712.
14. In 1712, the _____ had officially separated the two areas of the colony into the provinces of _____ Carolina and _____ Carolina.
15. The defeat of the _____ opened up new lands to white settlement after 1715. Most significantly, the _____ region (which included the lands on both sides of the Cape Fear River from its mouth to fifty miles inland) became the most

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

North Carolina: People, Places, & Progress

Chapter 5: The Early Settlement of North Carolina

Section 2: Settling the Pamlico Sound and the Cape Fear

Focused Reading

_____ area of the colony through its production of _____.

16. Burrington took some _____ forms (called _____ in that day), sold them to the Moores and others, and let them fill in the blanks as to the _____ of the land later.
17. Finally, the _____ were fed up with the unending troubles that their investment brought them. They decided to _____ and get what money they could from a bad deal.
18. In 1729, North Carolina went from being a _____ colony to a _____ colony. It now belonged directly to the _____.