

GUIDED READING

South Carolina: Our History, Our Home

Chapter 16: South Carolina Up To Date

Section 2 The Economy and the Environment

Directions: Use the information from pages 496 - 501 to complete the following.

1. The surprise development in the early twenty-first century was the emergence of the _____ industry.
2. The rise of automobile and related manufacturing started with _____, the French _____ maker and exploded with _____, the luxury _____ producer.
3. In the year 2011, South Carolina _____ more _____ to foreign countries than any other state. The state was also number _____ in export of _____.
4. The foreign investments in South Carolina are part of a much larger trend in the world economy called _____ (the free flow of business enterprises, capital goods, labor, and information across national lines).
5. The increased economic _____ generated by an _____ is called the multiplier effect.
6. When an increase in _____ produces an increase in _____ and _____ greater than the initial amount spent, it is called the _____.
7. The _____ job with the _____ multiplier effect is the building of _____ vehicles.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

8. It is estimated that for every one _____ in this industry, _____ other jobs are generated.
9. The motor _____ cluster of industries employed about fifty thousand workers by 2007 and pumps an estimated $29 _____ annually into the _____ economy.
10. Related to the automotive cluster is the _____ industry.
11. _____ is one of the _____ largest manufacturers of aircraft.
12. Most of the _____ in the state is clustered in the _____ areas of a few counties.
13. Fifteen metro area _____ are growing and their per capita _____ is moving up toward the _____ average.
14. Thirty-one _____ counties have slow growth and _____ incomes.
15. Even with the exciting new developments, there are _____ jobs in manufacturing in our state.
16. The reason for these fewer jobs is that advanced _____ has replaced many _____ and many companies _____ manufacturing to _____ where workers are _____ expensive.
17. After a century of dominance, South Carolina's _____ industry was in steady _____.
18. One constant in the state's economy since World War II, has been the contribution of the _____.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

19. Another constant major contributor to the South Carolina economy is _____.
20. Catering to tourists is the biggest industry in the _____ region.
21. The development of tourism and the growth of manufacturing raise concerns about their long-term _____ on our state's _____, _____, and _____.
22. Great concentrations of people, housing, and automobiles contribute to _____ of water, air and salt marshes.
23. _____ and _____ wastes are of great concern because of their threat to _____.
24. The main federal agency _____ pollution is the _____ Protection Agency (EPA). The _____ of this agency is to _____ the quality of air, water, and waste disposal in the public's interest.
25. Politicians who run state government are often faced with a _____ _____ (loyalty to two goals or interests that are competing).
26. The governor, for example, appoints and _____ the regulators whose job it is to _____ the environment and public health. But he/she is also expected to persuade corporations to build _____ in the state which want _____ regulations and restrictions.
27. _____ is attracting more attention as urban growth takes over more of the state's land.
28. People and the government recognize the need to _____ open spaces so that they can never be used for factories, housing developments, or shopping malls.