

CHAPTER 17: AS ONE CENTURY ENDS, ANOTHER BEGINSSection 1: Changes in Lifestyles

Directions: Use the information from pages 637-646 to complete the following statements.

The 1980s

1. The 1980s has sometimes been described as the “decade of _____.” The 80s generation could also be described as _____ seekers.
2. The 1980s was the age of the personal _____.
3. Adding personal computers in the home allowed people to _____ (to work at _____ while keeping in touch with the _____ through the computer).
4. The _____ offices were created in an attempt to reduce unemployment in _____ West Virginia. These operations provided _____ processing, _____ transcription, publishing, _____, and _____ service.
5. The popularity and _____ of computers ushered in the age of _____ games.
6. Computers soon replaced _____ registers and adding machines and led to the widespread use of automatic teller machines (_____).
7. It is estimated that the average American spent over _____ hours a week in front of the _____ set.
8. Family _____ continued to be popular on television. However, the images of the on-screen families had _____.
9. Some top movies of the 1980s were _____ series from the _____.
10. The music of the 1980s was dominated by _____ television and _____.

The 1990s

11. The _____, first established in 1992, revolutionized the way people _____ and do business.

Name: _____

Date: _____

12. Email became _____ as the World Wide Web developed.
13. Dress of the 1990s included the _____ look at the beginning of the decade.
14. Popular music included _____, which was characterized as depressing, empathic, and moody. Other popular songs came from hip hop, _____, rap, and _____.
15. In 1999, October Sky, set in _____, West Virginia, became a box-office success. Written by Homer _____, it told the story of six friends growing up in a coal _____ in _____ West Virginia who dreamed of building _____ to the moon.

The Twenty-first Century

16. The new _____ (a period of one thousand years) began with the “_____” scare, which resulted from a computer programming _____ system.
17. Electronics became _____. Mobile phones could do much more than make _____.
18. Social _____ websites allowed users to connect and _____ thoughts, pictures, and other items of interest with _____. MySpace was founded in July _____, and Facebook was founded in _____.
19. Blogs, short for “_____,” are _____ that are maintained by individuals as well as business and government groups.
20. CDs gave way to _____ players, such as _____, and the Internet became the source of choice for acquiring _____.
21. _____ and game shows became popular on television.

West Virginia Portraits: Jennifer Garner

22. Jennifer Garner was born on April 17, _____, in Houston, Texas but moved to _____, West Virginia at the age of three.
23. Jennifer played _____ in the marching band and became involved in _____ at George Washington High School in Charleston.
24. She performed in musicals and took _____, _____, and ballet lessons.

Name: _____

Date: _____

25. In 1990 she enrolled in Denison University in Granville, Ohio, where she changed her major from _____ to _____.
26. She earned a _____ of _____ degree in theater performance from Denison in _____.
27. After college graduation Jennifer moved to _____.
28. Her first on-screen performance was in the television miniseries, _____.
29. Her big break came in 2001 when she was selected to play a role in the _____ thriller _____.
30. She earned a _____ award and a _____ award for her role in Alias.
31. Jennifer has played roles in dramas, _____, comedies, and _____.
32. Her love of children has been a driving force behind her work with _____, which promotes national _____, _____, and early _____ efforts.
33. Jennifer has campaigned for laws to protect _____ children from harassment by photographers.
34. In 2015 she appeared in a documentary that focuses on rural _____ among children in West Virginia.
35. She led efforts to raise money for _____ relief in 2016.

Focus on Culture: The Role of Digital Technology in Changing Culture

36. Technology and _____ greatly influence each other.
37. The _____, social media, and _____ technology have transformed the way we _____, live, and interact with others.
38. It (the Internet) has replaced _____ libraries while making it possible to gain _____ to an unprecedented _____ of information.

Name:

Date:

39. It has allowed students to communicate across _____ borders.
40. With the world becoming more _____ through technology, there is more blending of _____ that influence our beliefs, _____, clothing, and _____.
41. Social media has been responsible for changing personal _____ and may be a contributing factor to social _____.
42. Mobile technology has changed the way people _____.
43. Emails and _____ often replace _____ calls.
44. _____ communication has helped people stay connected, but it has also resulted in more physical _____.