

GUIDED READING*CHAPTER 5: THE GEOGRAPHY OF WEST VIRGINIA*Section 4: Movement

Directions: Use the information from pages 224-225 to complete the following statements.

1. The geographic theme of movement focuses on the ways people are linked with _____, _____, and other _____ beyond their immediate environment.
2. Patterns of movement can be seen in _____, _____, _____, _____, and _____.
3. Early humans migrated from place to place in search of _____, _____, and _____.
4. Explorers were sent to look for _____ and _____, and for a shorter route to the _____.
5. Because the _____ were a tremendous obstacle, the first European explorers investigated the easiest routes, which included river _____ and gaps through the _____.
6. The first white settlers in western Virginia came to the eastern _____, where an extension of the _____ made their movement into the area easier.
7. By the time humans learned how to control geographical conditions, _____ opportunities affected movement.
