

GUIDED READINGCHAPTER 9: WAR IN WESTERN VIRGINIA*Section 2: Continued Problems with the Indians

Directions: Use the information from pages 349-357 to complete the following statements.

Settlers Claim Forbidden Western Lands

1. King George III of Great Britain angered the settlers by imposing the Proclamation of _____, which forbade settlement west of the _____.
2. The king feared an Indian _____ if settlers were allowed into the West.
3. The colonists, having fought to protect the _____ for seven years, thought they now deserved a reward of _____.

The Pringle Brothers

4. In 1761, the Pringle brothers, _____ soldiers, deserted from Fort _____.
5. Three years later, they reached the _____ River, where they took up residence in a large, hollow _____ tree.
6. The brothers stayed in the tree until their supply of _____ was almost gone. One of them must recross the _____ to replenish the supply. They decided that _____ would be the one to go.
7. When John told the easterners about the land in the _____, some of them wanted to _____ with him.

Settling Indian Lands

8. The Proclamation of 1763 created an _____ west of the mountains.
9. William Johnson arranged the Treaty of Fort _____ in 1768, giving the British all _____ land south of the _____ River and east of the _____.
10. John Stuart negotiated the Treaty of _____ by which the _____ gave up all of their land between the Kentucky and _____ rivers.
11. These two treaties _____ the Proclamation of 1763 and opened the West to _____ and _____.

Name: _____

Date: _____

12. _____ also played a part in settling the western lands. He was barely seventeen when _____ hired him to _____ and divide his estate into lots.

13. This was the future president's first encounter with _____.

14. Later, like all those who fought in the _____, Washington was promised western land. Washington claimed over _____ acres.

Special Feature: Vandalia

15. Great Britain granted lands for a new _____ to a group of prominent land speculators, including _____.

16. The proposed _____ colony was to include southwestern _____, present-day _____ west of the mountains, and parts of present-day Kentucky.

17. Its capital would be _____.

18. The colony was to be named _____ in honor of the _____ of England, who claimed to be descended from a Germanic tribe called _____.

19. After the outbreak of the _____, the king refused to approve the colony.

20. If the colony had been established, West Virginians would today be known as _____.