

GUIDED READINGCHAPTER 9: WAR IN WESTERN VIRGINIA*Section 3: Lord Dunmore's War

Directions: Use the information from pages 358-365 to complete the following statements.

Introduction

1. In April 1774, Major John _____, Virginia Governor John Murray's representative at Fort _____, called upon the people to prepare for _____.

Continued Indian Problems

2. Settlers asked Michael _____ to lead them against the Indians. He led the volunteers on a surprise raid at _____ Creek, a _____ camp.
3. One of the worst atrocities was the killing of the family of _____ Chief Tah-gah-jute, better known as _____.
4. Logan sought _____ and, during the summer of 1774, led many attacks on frontier settlements.
5. When Delaware Chief _____ was killed, his murderers placed his body in a _____ and floated it down the Monongahela River.
6. When _____, a Shawnee chief, was killed, a general Indian _____ was avoided only when Sir William Johnson persuaded them to honor the _____ they had signed.

The Start of Another War

7. Virginia Governor Lord _____ decided that the time had come to completely destroy the power of the _____ in the West.
8. Dunmore himself led the _____ troops, while Colonel Andrew Lewis commanded the troops in the _____.
9. Shawnee Chief Cornstalk decided to take advantage of the situation and strike at _____ army before it could join Lord _____ forces.

Name: _____

Date: _____

10. The result was the Battle of _____, which was the major encounter of Lord Dunmore's War. This was the largest battle ever fought in North America between the _____ and the _____.
11. The frontiersmen had superior _____, but the Indians were skilled at close _____ and hiding behind _____ and _____.
12. Cornstalk retreated across the _____. Since he had been unable to defeat _____, Cornstalk believed that he also would not be able to defeat Lord _____.
13. As a result, two days after the battle, the Indian chief sent a message to Lord Dunmore at _____ asking for _____.
14. The Treaty of Camp _____, signed by Lord Dunmore, the _____, the _____, and the _____, was a temporary agreement.
15. Most important to the western Virginians, the Indians gave up their rights to _____ south of the _____ River, an area that included present-day _____.
16. The Treaty of Pittsburgh, which was also signed in the year _____, made the terms of the Treaty of Camp _____ permanent. The Indians also promised that they would remain _____ and not help the _____ in the coming conflict.
17. In the "Fort Gower Address," the soldiers pledged their allegiance to King _____ and to Lord _____, but they also pledged that from then on their love for _____ and _____ would outweigh any other consideration.
18. Perhaps because of the strong spirit of _____ expressed in the Fort Gower Address, the Battle of _____ has sometimes been called "the first battle of the _____."
19. The real importance of the Battle of Point Pleasant may be that it was responsible for creating peace between the _____ and the _____ for the first two years of the _____.

Name: _____

Date: _____

West Virginia Portraits: Anne Hennis Trotter Bailey (Mad Anne Bailey)

20. Anne Hennis was born in _____, England, around the year _____.
21. She eventually made her way to _____ in Augusta County, not far from present-day _____ County.
22. Anne met a rugged young _____ named Richard _____. The two were soon married and moved to _____, Virginia.
23. Richard was killed by Indians in the Battle of _____.
24. After her husband's death, Anne left her _____ with friends and set out on her own. She began to dress in _____-style clothing.
25. It was during this time that she earned the nickname "_____."
26. Anne became an _____ fighter and _____.
27. While serving as a _____, Anne met John _____, who had also fought in the Battle of _____. In 1785, Anne and John were _____.
28. Anne once rode about one hundred miles to Greenbrier County to get _____ needed to help the settlers in _____ drive the _____ from the area.
29. After she died and was buried near Gallipolis, her remains were later moved to _____ and interred at _____ Park.