

Index

The purpose of the index is to help you locate information quickly. The index contains references to not only text, but also definitions, charts, maps, and illustrations. A page number with d before it indicates the definition of a term; a page number with f before it indicates a figure (table or chart); a page number with m before it indicates a map; and a page number with p before it indicates a picture (photograph, illustration, or painting).
