Chapter 9: War in Western Virginia
Section 2: Continued Problems with the Indians

A Letter to King George III

Directions: The Proclamation of 1763 was met with disappointment and anger by colonists who believed the British victory in the French and Indian War would open up the western frontier for settlement. Use the template on this page to write a letter to King George III trying to persuade him to rescind the Proclamation of 1763.
