Section 3: Looking Toward West Virginia's Future

Come Home to West Virginia

Directions: In 2009, Governor Joe Manchin III introduced a campaign to attract West Virginians who had left the Mountain State to return home. Think of ten reasons you think people should come home to West Virginia today. You may use your own ideas or ideas you have heard others express on television or in newspapers. After you have listed your reasons, draw an ad on a separate sheet of paper to entice people to come home or move to West Virginia. The ad should be one that could be used on a billboard.
