

Name: _____

Date: _____

WORKSHEET

Chapter 17: As One Century Ends, Another Begins
Section 3: Looking Toward West Virginia's Future

What's in the News

Directions: Radio, television, newspaper, and Internet sources are all filled with news about West Virginia. Search your local newspaper or the Internet or listen carefully to a story on television or radio news and find a story of interest to you. Then complete the chart detailing information about the event.

Date
Source	<input type="checkbox"/> Newspaper <input type="checkbox"/> Other _____ <input type="checkbox"/> Radio Station <input type="checkbox"/> Television Station <input type="checkbox"/> Internet Site
Who is involved?
Where did the event take place?
When did it happen?
What is the problem, issue, or activity?
What is being done to solve the problem?
How does this event, activity, or issue affect you or your family?

Name: _____

Date: _____

WORKSHEET

How does this event, activity, or issue affect your school or your community?

--

